

I want the rules to stay in place that serves the public and not the interests of a handful of media moguls. Please leave the current ownership rules in place.

The FCC has become the servant of the industry it is meant to regulate in the public interest.